INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Board of Directors
Project Healthy Children, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Project Healthy Children, Inc. (a nonprofit organization), which comprise the statements of financial position as of September 30, 2014 and 2013, and the related statements of activities and changes in net assets and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Project Healthy Children, Inc. as of September 30, 2014 and 2013, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

September 30, 2014 and 2013

NOTE A - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

A summary of significant accounting policies applied in the preparation of the accompanying financial statements follows:

Basis of Accounting

The accompanying financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Organization and Purpose

Project Healthy Children, Inc. (the "Organization") is a not-for-profit organization which was organized April, 2004 and provides technical support and education on the benefits of food fortification. The Organization works with governments and private industry to establish fortification programs that improve the health of people around the world. The Organization currently conducts its work in Liberia, Malawi, Rwanda, Burundi, Tanzania, Zimbabwe and Sierra Leone.

Income Taxes

The Organization is a not-for-profit corporation as described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and is exempt from federal income taxes. The Organization's tax returns are subject to examination by taxing authorities for the years ended September 30, 2011, 2012, and 2013.

Basis of Presentation

The Organization has adopted ASC 958-205 for Financial Statements of Not-For-Profit Organizations issued by FASB for presentation of its financial statements. As such, the financial statements are presented on the basis of unrestricted, temporarily restricted and permanently restricted net assets.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements. Estimates also affect the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and cash equivalents

The Organization considers all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with original maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Restricted and Unrestricted Revenue

Contributions that are restricted by the donor are reported as increases in unrestricted net assets if the restrictions expire (that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished) in the reporting period in which the revenue is recognized. All other donor-restricted contributions are reported as increases in temporarily or permanently restricted net assets, depending on the nature of the restriction. When a restriction expires, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from temporary restrictions.

Contributions

The Organization has adopted ASC 958-605 required for Accounting for Contributions Received and Contributions Made. In accordance with professional standards, contributions received are recorded as unrestricted, temporarily restricted or permanently restricted support depending on the existence and or nature of any donor restrictions.

Contributions in the form of property are recorded at fair market value on the date the property is received. There were no donated assets as of September 30, 2014 and 2013. Donated services, if any, are computed as the value that contributed services requiring specialized skills represent to the comparable compensation that would be paid if the Organization were charged for these services. There were donated services with a value of $7,500 as of September 30, 2013. The services consisted of digital interviews conducted in the search for an employee to lead the small scale fortification efforts. The amount of donated services is included in other revenue and in consultant and professional fees as part of general and administrative expenses.

Pledge Receivable

Pledge receivables are stated at the amount management expects to collect from outstanding balances. Management provides for probable uncollectible amounts through a provision for bad debt expense and an adjustment to a valuation allowance based on its assessment of the current status of individual pledges and grants. Balances that are still outstanding after management has used reasonable collection efforts are written off through a charge to the valuation allowance and a credit to pledge or grant receivable. Changes in the valuation allowance have not been material to the financial statements.

September 30, 2014 and 2013

Pledge receivables are unconditional promises to give that are recognized as revenues in the period received and as assets. Conditional promises to give are recognized only when the conditions on which they depend are substantially met and the promises become unconditional. Pledge receivables that are expected to be collected in future years are recorded at the present value of estimated future cash flows. The discount on these amounts is computed using an appropriate discount rate commensurate with the risks involved. Amortization of the discount is included in contribution revenue.

Property and Equipment

All acquisitions of property and equipment in excess of $3,000 and all expenditures for repairs, maintenance, renewals and betterments that materially prolong the useful lives of assets are capitalized. Property and equipment are carried at cost or, if donated, at the approximate fair value at the date of donation. Depreciation is computed using primarily the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets.

Property and equipment of the Organization is evaluated for possible impairment in accordance with ASC 360-10 and 360-20, Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long Lived Assets, and is required whenever events or circumstances indicate that the assets' undiscounted expected future cash flows are not sufficient to recover their carrying amounts. If the carrying amount exceeds the expected future cash flows, the Organization measures the amount of impairment by comparing the asset to its fair value.

Commitments and Contingencies

Grants, bequests and endowments often require the fulfillment of certain conditions as set forth in the instrument of grant. Failure to fulfill the conditions could result in the return of funds to the grantors. Although the return of funds is a possibility, the Board of Directors deems the contingency unlikely, since by accepting the gifts and their terms, it has made a commitment to fulfill the provisions of the gift.

Employees who work in or travel to the rural countries of Liberia, Malawi, Rwanda, Burundi, Tanzania, Zimbabwe and Sierra Leone are given cash advances because often there are no credit card transactions available in those locations. NOTE G – CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISK

The Organization maintains cash balances at one financial institution located in Massachusetts. Accounts are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation up to $250,000. Bank deposit amounts may, at times, exceed federally insured limits. Management does not believe that it is exposed to significant risk with respect to cash.
